Jacksonville Area Vocational School

Jacksonville ISD offers career and technology education programs in agricultural science, home economics, business education and industrial education. Admission to these programs is based on interest and aptitude, age and appropriateness, and class space available.

It is the policy of Jacksonville ISD not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, or handicap in its vocational programs, services, or activities as required by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972; and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended.

It is the policy of Jacksonville ISD not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, handicap, or age in its employment practices as required by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972; the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended; and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended.

Jacksonville ISD will take steps to assure that lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in all educational and vocational programs.
